

Brown's
Happy New Year to All We begin to extend to our customers friends, our warm and sincere wishes for the splendid business we had in 1910. We wish for each and every one, the fullest measure of happiness and prosperity that 1911 can bring forth.

While it is getting late in the season we still have a large stock of rubber boots at less than wholesale prices.
 Now when we say less than wholesale prices we mean just what we say and can prove it. See below a few prices.

OU
 ISSUED EVERY THURSDAY.
 A $1.00 Per Year in Advance.
 W. M. MINTER, Editor and Owner THURSDAY, FEB. 16, 1911

We agree with our friend "The Virginian Pilot" in its opinion that no help may be expected from the M. D. & V. R. R.
 Co., in securing more boats and better transportation facilities between the Rappahannock and Norfolk. Both the M. D. V. and the B. C. & A. Co. (the latter owning the Piankintank River boats) are, as pointed out by the Pilot, controlled by the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. This Company owns a controlling interest in all (or nearly all) lines that run out of Baltimore. Very natural then they will not, unless forced to do so carry any of this business to Norfolk, where they must meet competition on all freight shipped through to other points, thus losing a large percent. of their profits.

Couple this statement of facts with the refusal of any established company to enter territory already occupied by some other line and it is plain that the only means whereby the present condition can be improved is by the establishment and operation of an independent line of steamers from the Piankintank River to Norfolk.

The Pilot says, that such a line should be operated by Norfolk capital. It is all right for most of the stock to be owned in Norfolk but we think that the merchants and shippers at the other end of the run should also own stock in the company. For the reason, that as stock holders they would feel a greater interest in the welfare of the company and should there arise a fight between the line operating at present and the new company they would be less likely to allow a cut in rates to lead them to desert the Independent concern and would use their influence to prevent others from doing so.

The details however are not of primary importance. The mutual interest of Norfolk and the Western Shore demand that they get closer together. Whatever steps are taken to bring about this desirable result, we will welcome with delight, and the sooner some such move is made the better pleased we shall be. The beautiful and fertile valleys of the Piankintank and Rappahannock are crying for development, let it be said to the credit of Norfolk, that their cry was not uttered in vain.

Editors seem to be raising Cain these days. Even the sedate, level headed editor of the Southside Sentinel, has been infected by the "get-rich-quick" spirit and announces in the last issue of his paper that he is a candidate for Commonwealth's Att'y. of Middlesex County. Will wonders never cease?

Seriously, Mr. Ryland is very popular (and deservedly so) in Middlesex and his candidacy will doubtless be viewed with favor by the people there.
 The only sad phase of this new candidacy is the fact that it means the passing from public life of one of the first citizens of that county. We refer to Mr. T. G. Jones, a gentleman who has served the people many years faithfully, as an attorney for the Commonwealth, and whose successor must indeed be an active and efficient servant to live up to the standard set by him.

A King's Feast
 BY GEORGE GOWEN
 You may think about your banquet, Your feast and "how of sou't", But give me tender turnip greens With fat and seasoned jowl.

Some may like their terrapin, Their crabs and clams or bass;
 Some oysters on the half-shell, Without raddish, salt or "sass".

But give me the "long green", With "pot-licker" in a bowl,
 And pass me good old corn bread, But don't forget the jowl.

You may ladle out the hominy, And spaghetti for a change,
 With other Dago dishes, All steaming from the range;

But take your pies and puddings, Your trenchers piling high,
 But when you've greens and hog's jowl Pray do not pass ME BY!

Accused of Stealing M. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds, the pain from sores of all skin the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist".

The object of this suit is to recover of the defendant, Elmore Clark the sum of $100.00, as damages for the breach of a contract And the attachment having been returned executed, and an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Elmore Clark, is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear here, within fifteen days after due publication hereof, and do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Mathews Journal, a newspaper published in the County of Mathews, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the court-house of this County on the 6th day of February, 1911,

A Good Position
 Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of Wireless or Railway Telegraphy Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.
 Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R.
 R. and Wireless officials and places all graduates into position.
 It will pay you to write them for

Attack Like Tigers
 In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often disease germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purrifier," writes C. T. Budahn, Tracy, Cal., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerve, and build up your health. Try them

Deaths

MRS. SAMUEL L. HUDGINS
 Mrs. Samuel L. Hudgins, one of the oldest residents of New Point, departed this life on last Friday, Feb. 10th, age 79 years.
 She was the widow of the late Samuel L. Hudgins and was well known in lower Mathews. A consistent member of St. Pauls M.
 E. Church for many years, she demonstrated the genuineness of her religion by incorporating its principles into her daily life.
 She is survived by one son, J. E.
 Hudgins, of New Point, and five daughters, Mesdames Frank Miller, J. R. Forrest, G. E. Pritchett, of Mathews, T. M. Martin, of Newport News and J. J. Kellam, of Morris Station, Va.

The funeral services were conducted at Beulah Church on Sunday morning by Rev. J. A. Winn and interment was in the cemetery at St. Pauls Church.

THOS. A. LEIGH
 Mr. Thomas A. Leigh, a Confederate soldier, age about 65, died last Thursday night at his home near Belroi, Gloucester Co.
 The remains were interred at Bellamy's Saturday. Rev. W. H.
 Groves officiating in the absence of Rev. W. W. Sawyer, who is on a visit to his old home in North Carolina.

MRS. J. W. JARVIS
 Mrs. James Wesley Jarvis, of Hampton, only daughter of Mr.
 George E. Fernald, of Mathews Co., died at the hospital at Pho-bus, on Monday last. Her death followed an operation. Her remains were brought on the Old Dominion steamer and interred at Christ Church Cemetery.

WILLIAM ARMISTEAD
 Mr. William Armistead, an aged citizen of New Point, died in Williams burg on last Thursday. The remains were brought to Mathews on Saturday for burial and funeral services were held at the home of Mrs.
 Martha Armistead, by Rev. George E. Thomas. He is survived by two sons, Messrs Preston and Enocl Armistead.
